The main living and dining room at the front of the home are both spacious in size and lead through to the separate kitchen. If you enjoy cooking up a feast you will not be disappointed with the gorgeous kitchen that offers updated benchtops, an abundance of storage.

Moving through to the additional rumpus room, you will be enticed by the built in wet bar area, ideal for anyone who enjoys entertaining with family friends.

Stepping outside, the rear covered deck area is a beautiful place to sit and soak up the sunlight. The garage is truly a surprise, boasting even more storage facilities, work spaces and internal entry to the home.

Other key features include multi zone ducted air conditioning throughout, second update bathroom, plantation shutters, ducted vacuum, gas connections, quality floor coverings and multiple large storage options.

All set on an impressive 794m² elevated block with beautiful established manicured gardens surrounding the whole home.

2A Dinter Close is located just 650m to local shopping and medical facilities, 750m to East Maitland Golf course and club and 500m to local schools.
