No Work Needed Move Straight In!

This beautifully updated home is one to put on your inspection list! 78 Thompson Street, East Maitland would make an excellent first home or an ideal investment located only 450m from local schools and shopping facilities plus 1.2km to East Maitland Golf Course.

Boasting 3 bedrooms all featuring built in robes and ceiling fans.

The main living room at the front of the home is spacious in size and leads through to the separate kitchen and dining area. If you enjoy cooking up a feast you will not be disappointed as the kitchen offers updated appliances, an abundance of storage.

The additional sunroom at the rear of the home, offers a peaceful place to sit back and take in the beautiful rural views Maitland has to offer.

Stepping outside, the huge covered deck area is impressive in size and has been very well designed. An absolutely amazing place to entertain family and friends, I guarantee you they won't want to leave!

Under the home offers an abundance of storage space and the potential to create additional living options for the growing family.

Other key features include air conditioning, updated bathroom, second downstairs toilet off the laundry, additional office space/'man cave' under the home and double garage with internal access.

All set on a 588m2 elevated block.
